THOMAS N. IVAN

GENERAL MANAGER

Born: Toronto: Ont.
Jan. 31, 1911

ALTHOUGH TOMMY IVAN never played professional hockey — an injury ended his career while he was an outstanding player in the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association Senior Series — his list of achievements as coach and general manager is long.

Ivan began his pro career as a scout in the Detroit Red Wings organization and in 1945-46 began coaching Omaha Knights of the old United States Hockey League.

THE FOLLOWING season he coached Indianapolis in the American League and moved into the NHL as coach of the Red Wings in 1947-48. At Detroit Ivan's Teams won six straight NHL championships and three Stanley Cups in seven years.

In 1954-55 he left Detroit to join the Chicago Black Hawks as general manager, combining that position with coaching for one and a half seasons following the fatal illness of Dick Irvin.

IVAN IS CREDITED with much of the success in molding the Black Hawks into a strong club through a fine farm system which he helped rebuild. Under his tenure as general manager, the Hawks won their first Stanley Cup title in 23 years, in 1960-61, and their first NHL title, in 1966-67 with another league title in 1969-70 and a West title in 1970-71.

Tommy and his wife, Dorothy live in Lake Forest.

WILLIAM T. REAY

COACH
Born: Winnipeg, Man.
Aug. 21, 1918

BILLY REAY'S coaching career is unique in the fact that he coached before he played in the NHL. He has also been a Chicago coach longer than anyone else in the team's history. Reay, now in his eighth season behind the Chicago bench, was playing coach of Quebec Aces in 1943-44 when the Quebec Senior Hockey League champions won four games with Detroit Red Wings (two in each of the 1943-44 and 1944-45 seasons). Reay is remembered as a lightweight center (155 pounds) for eight seasons with Montreal Canadiens.

After retiring from the NHL at the end of the 1952-53 season, Reay became playing-coach for two seasons with Victoria Cougars in the Western League and then moved to Seattle in the WHL for the 1955-56 term.

THE FOLLOWING season he coached the new Rochester entry in the American League. In 1957-58 he was appointed coach of Toronto Maple Leafs.

After his tenure in Toronto, Reay joined the Black Hawks organization, coaching Sault Ste. Marie in the Eastern Professional League for one season and then Buffalo Bisons in the AHL for two terms.

BILLY COACHED Buffalo to league and playoff titles in 1962-63. He is the Dean of coaches in the NHL. His team won the Prince of Wales title for the first time in Black Hawk history in 1967 and again in 1969-70. He made it 3 titles in 5 years, last year with the West Division Championship.

Billy lives in Chicago with his wife, Clare and son Bill, Jr. who is a sophomore at Wisconsin. He also has a married daughter and granddaughter in Toronto.

MEET THE TRAINERS

CHARLES (SKIP) THAYER

Charles, (Skip) Thayer, 29, is the first hockey trainer in the NHL to be college trained. He took his degree from the University of Maine and his Masters from Indiana University. After serving as trainer for all sports at Colby College in Waterville, Me., he joined the Black Hawks three years ago.

Skip is married and he and his wife, Nancy live in Lombard the year around with their three sons, Scott 8, Stephan 4 and Gregory 1.

LOU VARGA

Lou Varga served as the trainer for the Black Hawks' Central League entry for five years in St. Louis and Dallas. He and Skip Thayer combine their talents as trainers for the Black Hawks and Lou also handles the equipment. Lou and his wife, Helen make their summer home in Welland, Ont. He also will be starting his fourth season with the parent Black Hawks.

LOU ANGOTTI

CENTER

Shoots right 170 lbs. 5'9"

Born: Toronto
Jan. 16, 1938

While many people are known to be "born losers." Lou Angotti, possibly the most popular hockey player in Chicago is certainly a "Born Winner."

Lou has now played on four championship teams in the past five years, including three in Chicago and one in Philadelphia, and he has been a big part of those titles mainly for his spirited play at crucial times.

At one point during the Playoffs, Lou was having such a great time that a Toronto writer referred to it as the "Lou-Angotti-Walking-on-Water-series."

Billy Reay has praised Lou many times for his ability to jump off the bench at any time and go full speed, no matter how little notice or warm up he has had.

There are many players in the league and even on the Hawks with greater ability but few bigger hearts and more spirit in the clutches.

Lou and his wife have two sons.

He is one of the many college products on the Hawks, having been an All-American at Michigan Tech, which is also Tony Esposito's Alma Mater.

BRYAN CAMPBELL

Shoots right 6' 180 lbs.

Born: Sudbury, Ont.
March 27, 1944

One of Jack Kent Cooke's famous "bad apples" Bryan Campbell proved a valuable part of the famous deal that brought Bill White and Gerry Desjardins to the Blackhawks. He gives the Hawks that big center they are constantly hunting and he proved a perfect "straight man" for Bobby's Hull's line. In fact, his ability to sift his way through opposing defenses found him scoring goals when every one was waiting for him to set up the Golden Jet.

He was knocked out of the playoffs after the first round by an attack of Asian Flu and his loss proved one of the costliest things that happened to the Hawks in their quest for the Cup. His 17 goals and 54 points were his highest total in the NHL and proved that he always had the ability and Billy Reay found the key to getting him up to his potential.

Bryan left the Bachelor Corps this summer.

Bryan is hoping that the experience he got last year playing regularly along with the tricks he learned about conserving his energy will make him even more valuable in the future to Chicago hockey hopes.

35

ANTHONY JAMES ESPOSITO

GOAL

Shoots left 5'11" 185 lbs.

Born: Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.
April 23, 1944

After one of the most sensational rookie years of any athlete, the big question with Tony Esposito was whether it was just a fluke or whether he really was that good.

Well, his second season, which is supposed to be a "jinx" for most athletes was in many ways better than his rookie year.

While he didn't repeat his record breaking 15 shutouts of his previous season, Tony had a very nice 6 whitewashes and a 2.27 average which ordinarily would have been good enough for the Vezina. As it was he and teammate Gerry Desjardins missed the Vezina by a bare margin to the New York tandem of Eddie Giaccomin and Gilles Villemure, but made up for it by out goaling the pair in the playoffs.

Because of an injury to Desjardins, Tony had to play all of the Black Hawks' 18 Playoff games and turned in some brilliant performances.

Tony's most solid attribute seems to be his consistency. He is the same guy when he is in a hot streak as he is after a tough defeat. He never makes excuses for himself, although he has been known to make them for his teammates.

One of the many college grads on the Hawk team, he uses his education to make himself a better player and also to further his own interests while at the peak of his playing career.

He enters each game well prepared. He can tell you about the lowliest rookie in the league and what his best shot is and where he should play him. While many fans have had a hard time trying to fit Tony into a category of goalie styles, the fact is Tony has no set style. He plays each man the way it is best to stop him.

Tony and his wife, Marilyn own their own home in Elmhurst and with the newest arrival this summer now have two children, Mark and Jason Patrick.

Shoots left 6' 195 lbs.

Born: Pt. Anne, Ont.

Nov. 19, 1944

Not many players in hockey scored 40 goals last season and positively none of them scare opposing goalies the way Dennis Hull does.

Although he has a brother with a more famous record when opposing general managers talk trade with the Black Hawks the first name they mention is always "that kid brother of Bobby. You know who I mean."

And that kid brother has put more goal tenders out of games than any one in hockey. His slap shot has to be the wickedest weapon this side of nuclear warfare.

With all that, Dennis has to be one of sportdom's noblest citizens. With a big smile flashing on his face he's always ready to pitch in for any chore Billy Reay may pick out for him.

Many times he sacrifices himself, even to the point of falling down if this is necessary to stop an oppositing forward. With all his goals playing his position is formost in his thoughts. His 66 points last season were his highest number and his 40 goals topped his career. However, he and Bobby combined for 88 goals in 1968-69 while they "only had" 84 last year.

Dennis and his wife, Mary Sue own a home in Elmhurst where they live during the year with their two daughters. In the summer he works his farm where he grows wheat and cattle.

Shoots left 5'10" 195 lbs.

Born: Pt. Anne, Ont.
Jan. 3, 1939

With 554 goals in his career, Bobby Hull has scored more goals than any other man in the NHL except Gordie Howe of Detroit. Starting his 15th season with the Black Hawks, Hull has become the magic name in hockey, a name, like Babe Ruth in baseball, which is almost synonimous with the game. Certainly he is synonimous with Chicago.

Bobby has accomplished almost everything that a human could in his profession, scoring 50 goals or more four times, while no other man has done it more than once, scoring more hat tricks than any one else, passing Rocket Richard's mark with 27 last winter, making the All Star team nine times and the second team twice.

His physical attributes make him one of the eight wonders of the world, standing under six feet (5-10 to be exact) his 195 lbs of sheer muscle give a body that brings tears to even Mr. America.

Although he has now passed the 30 mark, his experience over the past 15 seasons more than make up for any speed he may have lost from his "youth."

In fact, Bobby admitted he enjoyed playing more last season than any other time in his career. He now goes out to play each game as it comes along, having broken every record worth talking about it is no longer necessary for him to pick a particular goal for achievment. So he spends his time and energy helping his team win games and lets his personal accomplishments fall into perspective. And ironically he finds his own accomplishments piling higher than ever without the pressures of striving toward anything personally.

Bobby and his wife Joanne have a home in Glen Ellyn where they live with their five children Bobby Jr., Blake, Bret, Bart and Michelle.

4

DOUGLAS JARRETT

DEFENSE

Shoots right 6'3" 205 lbs.

Born: London, Ont.
April 22, 1944

Doug Jarret had one of his better years for the Hawks last season, playing with Keith Magnuson on one of the defense combinations. His 6 ft., 3 in., makes him one of the bigger men in the league and his skating ability and puck handling is often overlooked because he is always considered a rockem sockem type of player.

Doug has always been a Black Hawk, playing his junior hockey in St. Catharines along with Dennis Hull, where the two met and have become almost inseparable on and off the ice.

Always considered one of the best defensemen in the NHL, Doug has been bothered by injuries which have slowed him down toward the end of the season most years.

However, by keeping his weight a little higher he has overcome the tendency to lag at the end of the year and had enough left this past year to put in a fine playoff for the Hawks.

He and his wife Mary Lou have three sons.

22

JERRY KORAB

Shoots left 6'3" 215 lbs.

Born: Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.

Sept. 15, 1948

Few youngsters have made bigger hits with the home town fans than did Jerry Korab when he came up in midseason to join the Hawks last year and help them toward the West Division championship.

Chicago hockey fans always have gone for the big bruising type of players and Jerry rewarded them early with his hard hitting and fast fists. Biggest problem he faced was being marked by the officials so that even legal checks were sometimes considered with a jaundiced eye because it was Korab making them.

But Jerry has more going for him than his brawn. Possessed with a very accurate shot from the blue line and a good puck handler, Jerry was responsible for a lot of good goals scored by himself (4) and his teammates with 14 assists.

Rooming last year with Danny Maloney, the two big bruising bachelors must have been hard on the furniture, especially if they practiced any of their on ice techniques in their apartment.

CLIFFORD EUGENE KOROLL

RIGHT WING

Shoots right 6 ft. 185 lbs.

Born: Canora, Sask.

Oct. 1, 1946

Hockey men usually look at the playoff records of a man before assessing his true worth. On this basis Cliff has proved a real "pro" in the past two seasons. his freshman and sophomore years in the NHL.

Last year for instance, his 16 points equaled those of Pete Mahovlich of Montreal who was given raves as one of the men responsible for keeping Montreal alive during its drive for the Stanley Cup. Cliff had seven goals and nine assists and came through on some big plays for the Hawks.

This pattern was set the year before in Cliff's first season when he proved one of the few Hawks that didn't let up in their playoff series with Boston.

A big sturdy type, Cliff has the skating ability to use his brawn to advantage and his shot is becoming a dangerous threat to the entire NHL.

A teammate of Keith Magnuson at Denver U., Cliff has scored 34 goals during his first two seasons but that alone doesn't tell the entire story. A good checker and an industrious digger, Cliff is becoming a solid performer in holding down the job he inherited from the great Kenny Wharram who was felled by a heart ailment to end his career abruptly. It fell to Cliff to take up the slack and fill Kenny's skates. While no one could ever duplicate Kenny's great value to Chicago, Cliff has come as close as any human could and helps keep the famous Scooter Line tradition alive, playing with Stan Mikita.

Cliff and Magnuson are two of Chicago's famous bachelor group and they share an apartment in the northwest suburbs. They follow the tradition of the new Hawk look with young handsome college grads on the team.

ANDRE LACROIX

Shoots left 170 lbs. 5'8"

Born: Lauzon, Que.

June 5, 1945

Came to Black Hawks in trade just before this book went to press.

Andre has scored 72 goals in his three seasons in the NHL with the Flyers. . . . In his last three seasons. Andre has hit the 20-goal mark. . . . He had four game-winning goals last season. . . . 85 percent of his goals were considered important. . . . He was the club's leading scorer during the 1969-70 season. . . . He is a product of the Flyers' scouting system. . . . He still holds an AHL record of scoring the most hat tricks in one season (6) with the Quebec Aces during the 1967-68 campaign. . . . He makes his home in Philadelphia and during the summer runs a hockey school in New Jersey.

Married to a girl from Philly, was in Philly doghouse, but his confidence can't hurt anyone.

3

Shoots left 6' 185 lbs.

Born: Saskatoon, Sask.
April 27, 1947

Keith Magnuson has become a household word in the Chicago hockey circles with his flaming red hair and handsome smile to go with his reputation as the "bad man" of the Hawks.

While Keith set an NHL mark for penalty minutes this past season with 291, he isn't really a brawler in the sense of most of the past penalty leaders. He has been a Hawk "policeman" in the true sense that when any of his teammates are in trouble, especially some of the smaller men, Keith is the first one to their aide. This brings on many penalties where he and an opposing player get five minutes each and possibly a misconduct. But when the incident is over, Keith takes up where he left off with no grudges or dirty incidents.

He did improve his fighting ability by taking lessons at Johnny Coulon's gym summer before last. This made it possible for him to score some big "KO's" last year, including one where he ripped a Philadelphia player for several front teeth and a lot of stitches. But he would rather play hockey than sit in the penalty box or even fight. But no one ever saw Keith back away from anything.

However, his actual playing ability has been overshadowed by stories of his fighting. An almost miraculous jump from college hockey to the majors two years ago made him high on the list of rookies that year. He has the skating and coordination to be a great defenseman but he also uses his intelligence to anticipate plays and set up others for his own team.

Had a knee operation this past summer after an injury in midseason kept him in pain the remainder of the year. However, no one realized how painful it had been because he kept plugging away and was one of the big reasons for the Hawks' great season.

Rooms with Cliff Koroll, his Denver U. teammate. They share a northwest side bachelor apartment.

RONALD (CHICO) MAKI

FORWARD

Shoots right 5'9" 170 lbs.

Born: Sault Ste. Marie, Ont.
Aug. 17, 1939

After nine full seasons with the Black Hawks, Chico Maki finally accomplished what every one knew he could do, if he would just remembers he has one of the best shots in the NHL.

Chico, who has spent most of his career setting up goals for other people, scored 22 himself last season, the highest in his career. He also scored six more in the playoffs, having his own personal best season.

However, don't ever judge Chico's worth by the number of goals because here is a player who has served in so many ways to help the Hawks, he is a special man to both players and fans.

Chico likes to play right wing, but when he's needed and that has been often, he can do a better than yoeman job at center. And when needed he'll fill in at left wing too. But if things really get dull, you'll see Chico out there killing penalties. In fact over the years he and Eric Nesterenko have come to be known as the top penalty killers in hockey.

His favorite target in setting up goals has been Bobby Hull, whom he has played with most of his years on the Hawks. Chico's 86 assists on Bobby Hull goals puts him third behind only Bill Hay and Stan Mikita.

Starting his career in St. Catharines and advancing to Buffalo and then Chicago, Chico has always been part of the Black Hawk organization.

To top off his great season last year, he scored the big goal as the West All Stars beat the East in the first all star game he ever played. And it couldn't have happened to a more worthy guy.

Chico and his wife Nancy have two sons, Michael and Stephen.

7

HUBERT (PIT) MARTIN

Shoots right 5'9" 165 lbs.

Born: Noranda, Que.

Dec. 9, 1943

One of the most underrated members of any hockey club, Pit Martin can do as many things with a hockey stick as any one living, includiny putting it in the net or keeping the other guys from doing it.

A dapper dresser, runs neck and neck with Gerry Pinder as the team's Haber dashing expert. His quiet, soft spoken French accented syllables belie the power behind his statements once he addresses himself to a reporter's question. Completely candid and more importantly, honest and himself, never ducking behind excuses of any kind.

His centering ability is second only to teammate Stan Mikita in setting up plays. The past season saw him working with various combinations on the left side as the Hawks tried to find a permanent man on that side to go with him and Jim Pappin. However, Martin's play-making ability got the most out of every one who played with him and he has been instrumental in Pappin's great goal getting ability on the right side. Pappin has scored 30, 28 and 22 for the Hawks in his three years in Chicago, bettering any total he had in his Toronto days, thanks to Martin's ability to find Big Jim in the clear at the right time.

Although he has always played center, Pit has as good a fast break as any man in hockey and can bust across the blue line with the puck as well as any forward in the league.

A graduate of Windsor University where he majored in French and History, Pit is one of the famous Hawk college corps. He and his wife Pat have a baby daughter. Although not yet 28, Pit is starting his ninth full season in the NHL.

STANLEY MIKITA

Shoots right 5'9" 165 lbs.

Born. Sokolce, Czechoslovokia

May 20, 1940

Winner of four scoring championships and almost every award possible to have in the NHL. Stan Mikita is among the real Super Stars of the game.

When one says Black Hawks he is really saying Stan Mikita and Bobby Hull all in one breath and to separate the two as far as ability or value to the team is almost an impossibility.

Stan's 74 points last year was actually his lowest total since 1960-61, but still kept him high in the league.

He has made six first teams and two second team All Star aggregations in his 12 seasons in the league. He also had 18 points in the Playoffs second only to Bobby Hull on the team.

His line has long been known as the Scooter line and although always high among the point scorers. Stan is most proud of its ability to check. His line may score four or five times during a game, but he will be very upset if by some chance the other team gets even one goal.

One of the smaller men in the league, Stan has had the ability to stay away from serious injury, although almost all opposing forwards and defensemen spend most of the game taking pot shots at him.

He has been instrumental in making a solid right winger out of Rookie Cliff Koroll and also has spent much time in grooming Dennis Hull into one of the League's top goal getters.

With Pit Martin, Stan ranks high among the great "little men" in all sports.

He and his wife Jill have a home in Elmhurst where they live with their three children.

15

ERIC NESTERENKO

Shoots right 6'2" 197 lbs.

Born: Flin Flon, Man.

Oct. 31, 1933

Before Bobby Hull and Stan Mikita . . . there was Eric Nesterenko. That is about the entire story of the Chicago Black Hawks. No one now alive can hardly remember a Black Hawk team without Mr. Elbows, Swoop, Icabob Crane . . . or whatever you might use as your pet name for Eric.

Just short of 1,200 NHL games and only six short of the 250 goal mark, few athletes have served their teams as well as Eric has served the Hawks.

Hailed as one of the top youngsters in Canada, things didn't work out for him when he joined Toronto's organization but Tommy Ivan camped on his doorstep and talked him into staying in hockey and joining the Hawks back in 1956. Neither Tommy nor Eric has ever been sorry about that decision.

Noted for his non conformist attitude toward most things, every one on the Hawks knows that Eric will be there when he's needed. One of his specialties has been penalty killing and checking. Eric has shadowed the biggest names in hockey.

Eric and his wife Barbara own their own home in Evanston, where they live with their three children. An accomplished after dinner speaker, Eric is a sought after guest at banquets the year around.

JAMES JOSEPH PAPPIN

Shoots right 6'1" 190 lbs.

Born: Sudbury, Ont.
Sept. 10, 1939

One of the better trades made by the Black Hawks, Jim Pappin was "liberated" from Toronto in time to begin helping the Black Hawks and has scored 80 goals in three seasons in Chicago.

Big and strong, Jim is ready for anything once the game starts. He has had bad moments with the crowd in Chicago mainly because he is his own strongest critic. When things aren't going right for Big Jim, he gets mad at himself and starts pressing.

But few players do more when the going is toughest. He has always blossomed in the playoffs and the Hawks can attest to this better than any one. In 1967, he almost single handedly eliminated the Hawks from the playoffs with a phenomenal series against them playing for Toronto.

RINGTHEBELL on Archive.org

In the past Playoff he had not less than 10 goals, second only to Bobby Hull on the Hawks and his all-around play make him a valuable member of any team.

Actually on the shy side, Jim stays away from news men as much as he can, and has been known to give them his mind on occasion. But he always is ready to stick up for a teammate both on and off the ice.

In any skirmish, Jim is one of the first to come to the aid of his teammates even if it may cost him a fine.

Possessor of one of the best shots in the league Jim is a valuable member of the Black Hawks.

DANIEL PATRICK O'SHEA

Shoots left 6'1" 190 lbs.

Born: Toronto, Ont.
June 15, 1945

Daniel Patrick O'Shea should find life in Mayor Daley's town to his liking with a name like his and with the kind of hockey ability he possesses. The latter, even in Chicago is really more important than an Irish name, although neither can hurt a young man named Danny.

Coming to Chicago in midseason in a trade for Doug Mohns, Danny contributed to the Hawk title drive at both center and left wing.

A hard nosed type of individual, he is that big center type the Hawks are constantly hunting who doesn't mind going into the corners and taking a check.

Danny gained most of his amateur experience with the Canadian Olympic team and then was drafted by Minnesota North Stars where he played two and a half years.

His combined total for Minnesota and Chicago last year gave him 18 goals, his highest total in three NHL seasons.

Starting at the beginning of the year for the Hawks with knowledge of Billy Reay's system should help Danny improve on that total this coming year.

His brother, Kevin plays for Buffalo. Danny married a Minnesota girl just before the season started.

GARY SMITH

GOALTENDER

Shoots Left 215 lbs. 6 ft., 4 in.

Born: Feb. 4, 1944

Ottawa, Ont.

One of the biggest men in the league at 6 ft., 4 inches, Gary Smith fills a lot of goal and is expected to be a big help to Tony Esposito in splitting the goaltending duties this season. Obtained during the summer in a trade with the California Seals, Gary had been a nemissis to Black Hawks in past seasons. One year he beat them five out of six times.

A roving type of goalie, Gary has what people call Color and should be interesting copy for news men.

Gary played in 71 of the Seals' 78 games last year, for the highest total in the league. With Esposito as his partner, he should get a few breathers.

His father, Des Smith, starred with the Boston Bruins and Black Hawks and his brother Brian has been in pro hockey for several seasons.

Gary is married to the former Vicki Harper.

PATRICK JAMES STAPLETON

Shoots left 5'8" 185 lbs.

Born: Sarnia, Ont.
July 4, 1940

Paddy Stapleton got off to a slow start last season as he worked his knee back into shape after a serious operation, but by Christmas he was in full stride and was named to the second All Star team as well as giving the Black Hawks another great year on defense.

Playing in tandem with Bill White, a tall rangey right sider, Paddy and Bill look like Mutt and Jeff out there but there is nothing comic about the way they guard the blue line. Pat had 17 points in the Playoffs, tops among defensemen, and his all-around play throughout the season was invaluable to the team.

He and his wife Jackie have five children, tying the Golden Jet for team leadership in that department.

Pat has been with the Hawks for the past six years and his playmaking and defense have become a by-word with Hawk fans.

He began his hockey career on the Hawks' St. Catharines team, but was drafted away. However, Tommy Ivan and Billy Reay worked at getting him back into the organization and it was one of the best moves they ever made.

Paddy is an accomplished after-dinner speaker and a tireless worker with kids.

WILLIAM EARL WHITE

Shoots right 6'2" 190 lbs.

Born: Toronto, Ont.
Aug. 26, 1939

Possibly the best defensive defenseman in the National Hockey League, Bill should have made every All Star team in existence, but his quiet way of accomplishing things doesn't get him headlines and he has to be content with knowing that Hawk players and fans appreciate him even if the press doesn't.

One of Jack Kent Cooke's "bad apples," the Hawks picked Bill up in a trade in mid-season of 1969-70 in a trade with Los Angeles.

Bill played five years for Eddie Shore in Springfield and, although the former Boston Hall of Famer was known as a hard task master, his eyes still twinkle when you mention White's name ."That boy is smart," Eddie says. "He learns fast and he listens."

Bill is big enough but he also makes the right move almost every time and is never caught out of position. He knows how to use his strength in the corners, but he also can move the puck when necessary. Playing with Pat Stapleton, he doesn't have to set up plays often but he can fool you with that big pass or going all the way to score himself from time to time.

Quiet and soft spoken you wouldn't know Bill was there until one of the opposing forwards lands on his back side trying to break over the blue line. He also knows how to use the "needle" in the dressing room kibitzing sessions and even a Stan Mikita can't get him off balance.

Bill and his wife Gail have three daughters, Kimberly, Karrie and Kristen.

GERALD F. (GERRY) DESJARDINS

Born: Sudbury, Ont.
July 22, 1944

They say pitching is 70 per cent of baseball. If this is true, goaltending is 80 per cent of hockey and with Gerry Desjardins and Tony Esposito the Black Hawks have the two best young goaltenders in the NHL.

Now they have Gary Smith to make 3 major leaguers on the same team.

Desjardins, which means gardener in French, is joining a long Black Hawk tradition of great goal tending which started with a man named Charles Gardiner.

But the coincidence doesn't stop there. Gerry came to the Hawks last January in a deal involving Denis DeJordy and Gil Marotte and also brought Bill White and Bryan Campbell to the Hawks.

In his four games in the nets for the Hawks Gerry won all four and gave Tony Esposito just enough rest that he could go on to break the shutout record with 15 and keep the Hawks in first place.

But Gerry is by no means a "back up goalie" or a man you have around to give your big man a rest now and then. Desjardins proved while at Los Angeles that he can play with the best. When he came to the Hawks, Los Angeles had nine victories at that point in the season and were mired deep in last place. But of the nine victories three were shutouts. He won all four games as a Hawk.

Among his qualities Gerry is candid in his approach to hockey and his own contribution. "If the puck goes in the net, I have to blame myself most, because I have the last chance to stop it," Gerry says.
